

Vital Signs & Critical Decisions
(Where We Have Been And Where We Are Going)

Sunday, February 11, 10:40am

Sunday, February 11, will be a watershed day for this faith community known as Resurrection Lutheran Church. This is a unique point in time for our congregation. We are about to begin a call process for a new pastor. Come to be informed. Come to be sure your voice is heard. On this day we will have:

One Worship Service at 9:30am and

Our Annual Meeting at 10:40am

Justin Grimm, Assistant to the Bishop, preaching at 9:30, will be present for our annual meeting.

This meeting will be different than other annual meetings in three ways.

- You will receive information and assess readiness of the congregation for future ministry.
  - o State of Financial Resources
  - o Current Staffing Levels
  - o Difference Between Steady State and Preparing for New Opportunities
- You will have an opportunity to comment on the Ministry Site Profile (MSP), the picture of our faith community, which will be given to all potential pastoral candidates as they consider a possible call to serve among you.
  - o MSP will be presented by your Transition Team
  - o Opened for comment & conversation.
  - o Considered for approval to be used by your call committee.
- You will meet your call committee and they will be commissioned to begin their work.

Don't miss this chance to be part of the Decisions that will shape our future together!
